Thanksgiving Foods Survey— We had some fun this past week talking about what our favorite desserts are for thanksgiving. The most popular choice was apple pie, followed by a pumpkin and in third place was chocolate cream pie. Less popular, but yummy selections included, pecan pie, cupcakes, raspberry crème pie, banana crème pie, and brownies. One of the more unusual choices was orange jello, a favorite of one of our teachers, who has fond memories of her grandmother making this for her as child.
